DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY (ORIGINAL AND PRESENT)

Two story, three bay, hip roof plan. Concrete block foundation is raised and a set of five concrete steps leads to the center hall entry. The double door has a hip roof overhang supported by simple brackets. Exterior brick chimney is located on the side facade. Decorative brick work is placed as quoins, and on the front facade to give the lodge name and number and masonic symbol.

HISTORICAL/CULTURAL SIGNIFICANCE

The charter for the Laurel Lodge was granted 11/15/1906. Members met in Lawton, below Layland mine tipple in the lodge there. When this hall burned in 1962, they met in Lookout, at the Longdale Lodge #14. In March 1964, they moved to Meadow Bridge to the I.O.O.F. bldg. In 1964 land was purchased & building started. Frame windows, doors, Lodge furniture & flooring came from the Thurmond Lodge. Roof, brick
