This house is located in central Hampshire County, in a rural area northeast of the unincorporated village of Augusta and southwest of the unincorporated village of Slanesville.
none Archaeological Artifacts Present
Description of Buildings or Site (Original and Present)	_____ 2 _____ Stories _____ 3 _____ Front Bays
Substantial 3-bay vernacular residence of wood construction with a centered entrance and flat-topped fenestration, 6/6 and 2/2. The building appears abandoned and is L-shaped in plan, with an intersecting gable roof and partial returns of the cornice on the gable ends. Under the eaves are a series of locally distinctive paired sawn Italianate-style brackets, a design feature not seen within the central Hampshire county survey area. A substantial shed-roof side porch occupies the entire left side.

Statement of Significance:
Although vacant and appearing deteriorated, this is a distinctive house in this part of Hampshire County for its Italianate styling and detail. It may be eligible for the National Register under Criterion C for architecture, although this preliminary evaluation would have to be confirmed by a closer examination, including that of the interior and would require the concurrence of the SHPO.
