Describe Setting	Acres
This house is located in the rural north-central Hampshire County community of Green Spring, a primarily residential hamlet whose northern boundary is defined by a substantial rail yard and the Potomac River.
none Archaeological Artifacts Present
Description of Buildings or Site (Original and Present)	1½ Stories 3 Front Bays
1½-story Craftsman-style cottage of wood construction, with a hipped roof and hipped wall dormers. The roof extends beyond the plain of the building, to shield a recessed front porch which itself is supported by battered wood posts which rest on red brick piers. Fenestration is flat-top, 1/1, with window units set singly and in pairs.

Statement of Significance:
This house is architecturally undistinguished, has been altered, and does not appear to meet National Register Criteria for Evaluation; further, this village possesses no potential for historic district designation because of the widespread modifications to virtually every property.
