Describe Setting
This house is located in the rural north-central Hampshire County community of Green Spring, a primarily residential hamlet whose northern boundary is defined by a substantial rail yard and the Potomac River.	Acres none Archaeological Artifacts Present
Description of Buildings or Site (Original and Present)
1 Stories 4 Front Bays
1-story vernacular cottage of wood construction with a side-gable roof and an addition on the façade, creating an L-shaped footprint, with a porch in the angle of the ell. Porch is supported by non-historic wood posts, and is enclosed within a non-historic wood balustrade. Fenestration is flat-top, 1/1. The building lacks other notable architectural detail.

Statement of Significance:
This house is architecturally undistinguished, has been altered, and does not appear to meet National Register Criteria for Evaluation; further, this village possesses no potential for historic district designation because of the widespread modifications to virtually every property.
