Description of Buildings or Site (Original and Present)1½Stories3Front Bays

1½-story vernacular cottage of wood construction, with a gable roof and gable-end orientation to the street, with the ridgeline penetrated by a red brick chimney with some corbelling. Shed-roof porch extends across the façade, supported by non-historic wood posts and enclosed within a modern wood balustrade. The main entrance is offset on the 4-bay façade, featuring a single door. Some window sash was being replaced at the time of the survey. A 1-story shed-roof addition has been built onto the westernmost portion of the south elevation. Fenestration is flat-topped throughout.

Statement of Significance:

This house is architecturally undistinguished, has been altered, and does not appear to meet National Register Criteria for Evaluation; further, this village possesses no potential for historic district designation because of the widespread modifications to virtually every property.
